II. Finance

A. Audit presentation

Craig Peacock, partner from CBIZ, presented the results of the FY25 financial audit.

Highlights are below:

- Ellen mentioned appreciating the Management Discussion and Analysis section written by Michelle as a start to the audit
- there were not required changes in rolling out a new GASB standard
- Biggest area of focus - capital, cash, related parties - no changes needed
- Auditors need to be independent
- no disagreements, adjustment, or unusual transactions found
- midyear helped as a start in completing some preliminary work
- draft was ready 10/1 and final send out 10/3
- the presentation of the Board Designated reserves in the statements was changed and a footnote was added instead of listing out the reserves
- Unmodified opinion issues - no material weaknesses, no significant deficiencies, no errors to school or Sizer that required changes to the general ledgers

B. Annual planning and goal setting

Committee was in agreement with remote meetings and the adjusted calendar as attached. Next few meetings dates:

Nov 10 at 6PM

Jan 22 at 7PM - for Parker Finance 101 not mandatory

Feb 2 at 6PM

The committee set the following annual goals to be reported to the Board:

- Search and hire auditor for the next three years
- Continue towards salary parity vs. top seven sending districts for all faculty and staff as we balance staffing to meet growing student needs

C. Audit Firm RFP

E. Sturgis made a motion to instruct Michelle to issue RFP after removing information about the mid year review procedures.

R. Egan seconded the motion.
