Michelle presented the draft Budget as developed by she and Brian through meetings with staff since December. Once Fincomm reviews, we can either recommend tonight or meet again to review before taking to Board for first read. The slides are a required attachment to these minutes. In summary, Michelle walked us through

- FY27 choices
- Assumptions & Background
- Reserve Fund Balances with both FY26 & propose FY27 draws
- Application statistics chart 2017-2026
- FY27 Tuition stats and assumptions
- Revenue proposed against both actual and projected FY24-26
- Notated detailed expenses
- Strategic Plan updated: planned vs proposed draws FY26-FY29
- Salary comparison regarding “closing the gap” goals
- Capital Budget/refinancing FY26-27
- Five year Projections operating statement through FY32

Discussion:

- Noted that unlike previous years, we’re not budgeting any addition to reserves
- Enrollment appears to have returned to preCovid “normal”
- Withdrawals dropped by half this year , from 52 to 23
- Annual Fund exceeded expectations this year; using #s from Fundraising plan at this point for FY27
- Health insurance: don’t know new rate until May, but we had several staff join our plan this year, causing significant increase in cost
