II. Public Comment

A. Public Comment

- Shirley Williams, WIHS co-founder, reminded us of the importance to focus on the charter and to work together and co-create.
- WIHS students, Winter and Christiana, on behalf of AJ, ASB President made the following requests:
  - Any equity audit report be published in the minutes.
  - Most recent authorizer review be published in the minutes.
  - All board review of the charter/contract outlined success metrics vs. performance printed in the minutes, with particular attention paid to the First Peoples Principle of Learning, the culturally responsive tenants and retention rates.
  - Board review of the Charter/non-discrimination clause vs. any student/parent/employee concerns or complaints related to discrimination toward students. Review of complaints and how they have or have not been addressed.
  - More teacher training to read and review the charter. Substitute teachers also should read the charter.
  - More safety training for students.
  - More notice when there is someone inside the mall with weapons.
- Tehya Moberg requests the full removal of another student's dog and concerns for the safety of their service animal. They request details for the last vote on allowing the dog to return.
- Paula Sohal, a parent of a student, shared concerns about the school including lunch, responsiveness of leadership, and a safe learning environment for their teenager.

III. Governance

A. Whiteswan Environmental and WIHS Partnership

- Opportunities for WIHS and WE to weave our work more closely together were discussed.

B. Charter Commission Update

Christine Espina gave a high-level overview of the Corrective Action Plan.

Corrective Action Plan submitted to Commission on April 19, 2023 outlining how we will

- Increase the capacity of Board of Directors;
- Monitor student learning through interim assessments;
- Ensure high student participation in interim and summative assessments;
- Ensure that WIHS daily schedule meets instructional minutes specified in the charter contract and state law.

Board Term Limit Discussion. We are actively recruiting board members as many of the current members' terms are nearing the end. WIHS by-laws state that board terms are up to 5 years.

- Nasreen Mughal-Barrows will extend her term until September 2023.
- Kira Lieberman will extend her term as much as needed but would like to step down as soon as possible.
- Christine Espina will extend her term until December 2023.
- Jason McGill will fulfill his term until August 2023.
