II. Public Comment

A. Public Comment

No one present or online for public comment

III. School Updates

A. Enrollment Update

Julia and Anders presented on current enrollment.

- Getting close to our October Count date- budgeted number was 97
- WIHS has 111 confirmed enrolled students and has exceeded our goal
- It will be a strong point with renewal that we now have a waitlist for grade 9 and we have backfilled the current 10th grade class

B. Presentation by School Team

C. WIHS Academic Overview

Dawn Walker shared the school updates, expanding on the current enrollment information received from Julia and Anders.

Average daily attendance from 8/28-9/26 was 88.36%, and a consistent rate each day without drops that occurred last year.

CEB met for the 2nd time of the 24-25 school year, and scheduled meetings with 2 families at that time. There are two additional meetings tomorrow that individual committee members will attend. The approach is supportive and offering strategies and resources to students and families.

IV. Cultural Engagement Committee Update

A. CEC May Update

Patrick Freeland shared Committee updates.

- Hispanic Heritage Month events at WWU
- Indigenous Heritage- groups in Bellingham and various colleges. Patrick volunteering with the Community Consortium for Cultural Recognition to help plan the event at Lummi Nation School this fall
  - Website:
- Next cultural engagement meeting will be scheduled for next month
  - Committee will develop a plan to possibly join the Community Consortium

V. Governance

A. Commission Updates

Dawn Walker shared updates on the current CAPs and items that are due each month.

WIHS is currently in compliance with the CAP. Halma and Scott from the commission have been very helpful with reaching out when a question arises about data that has been submitted to ensure that all components are accurate and fully received.

Dawn share the upcoming reporting deadlines and areas of need from the Board

B. CAP, Compliance, and Reporting Updates

C. Board Development and Empowerment

- Jonathan and Dawn meeting every other week- will adjust the X placeholder in the Board Development documents
- Board will complete Dawn's evaluation in the next month
- Nasreen and Adan will take on board recruitment and outreach to new people who are interested
- Adan will attend the Commission Oversight meeting on 10/1
