II. Information/Discussion Items

A. Discussion on the Student Board Member Processes and Responsibilities

J. Hernandez, Director of Student Services, presented the process and logistics in preparation to the student board member selections. He thanked E. Acar, Chief Academic Officer, J. Lara, Board Secretary, and J. Obuchi, Program Manager, for the support in the communications with legal counsel and voting processes across the school sites. He presented the language as dictated in Assembly Bill 824 and the revision previously made to the MPS Bylaws for the "pupil member" also known as the student board member. He presented the timeline which encompassed parent and student messaging, school site elections, staff review, eventual presentation to the Board of Directors from the student candidates elected from their school, and the final Board vote. He went over the requirements and the application and added that parent permission was needed. The Committee raised questions to which staff addressed and made recommendations to ensure the student would be able to get a rewarding experience. Staff gathered the feedback raised by the Committee.
