He reported various indicators: English Language Arts: 9 out of 10 schools showed an increase of 3 points or more in schoolwide results, and 6 out of 10 schools have achieved higher performance statuses than the state average. Mathematics: 7 out of 10 schools showed an increase of 3 points or more in schoolwide results, and 5 out of 10 schools have achieved higher performance statuses than the state average. Science: 2 out of 10 schools showed an increase of 3 points or more in schoolwide results, and 3 out of 10 schools have achieved higher performance statuses than the state average. English Learner Progress: 7 out of 9 schools showed an increase of 2 percentage points or more, and 4 of 9 schools have achieved higher performance statuses than the state average. College & Career Indicator: 2 out of 6 schools showed an increase of 2 percentage points or more, and 6 out of 6 schools have achieved higher performance statuses than the state average. Graduation rate: 2 out of 6 schools showed an increase of 1 percentage point or more, and 6 out of 6 schools have achieved higher performance statuses than the state average. Chronic absenteeism rate: 4 out of 10 schools showed a decline of 0.5 percentage points or more, and 4 out of 10 schools have achieved lower (better) performance statuses than the state average. Suspension rate: 4 out of 10 schools showed a decline of 0.3 percentage points or more, and 7 out of 10 schools have achieved lower (better) performance statuses than the state average. They also reported on differentiated assistance. Board Members questions were addressed by staff.

B. Presentation of the Inaugural MPS 2024-25 Annual Report

B. Olandes, Director of Advancement, presented the annual report to help amplify the work MPS has been doing over the past 20 years. He went over all sections on the report from who MPS is, demographic profile, instructional philosophy, and college going culture. Includes CAASPP, Advanced Placement program, and dual enrollment outcomes. He showcased the graduation rates and college acceptance rates and extracurricular activities. He also showcased the financial health of the organization. Report spotlighted staff, facilities investments and continued work to improve educational settings, and commitment to the 'whole child' highlighting the community school framework. Report closed on the strategic vision.

C. Presentation of the MPS Capacity Building Engagement Report

S. Budhreja, Chief Financial Officer, presented the review of the policy and practices in relations to governance. This was in collaboration with McConnel Jones as part of MPS partnership with the Charter School Growth Fund (CSGF). Report identified recommendations of areas of improvement to assist MPS on future needs, improve fiscal policies and reporting.

This included board trainings such as continued Brown Act and conflict of interests, as well as banking.

D. Enrollment Update

B. Olivares, Chief Impact Officer, provided and update to the enrollment efforts and data across all school sites. Achieving enrollment goals requires ongoing collaboration among school site leaders and home office staff, with alignment across marketing, branding, student experience, and family satisfaction. She and other staff met with each school site leader to review tiered enrollment targets that account for application-to-enrollment conversion and exceed baseline budget goals. Board Members questions were addressed by staff.
