A. Cardiac Emergency Plan	Vote	Melissa Richardson	5 m
The Cardiac Emergency Response Plan (CERP) outlines the school's coordinated, evidence-based system for preventing death and disability from sudden cardiac arrest (SCA) on campus. This plan fulfills all requirements of Senate Bill 278 – The Smart Heart Act, G.S. 115C-375.25, and G.S. 115C-47(70), ensuring that Haliwa-Saponi Tribal School maintains a rapid, effective, and legally compliant response to cardiac emergencies.
B. HSTS Diabetes Training Policy	Vote	Melissa Richardson	5 m
The purpose of this policy is to ensure that students with diabetes receive safe, appropriate, and legally compliant care during the school day and during all school-sponsored activities. Haliwa-Saponi Tribal School supports full participation of students with diabetes and complies with all applicable North Carolina laws governing medication administration, emergency care, and student self-management.
C. Conflict of Interest Policy	FYI	Melissa Richardson	2 m
The North Carolina Charter School Performance Framework is a tool for evaluating NC charter schools annually using academic, finance, governance, and operational performance measures as stated in the school's charter agreement and G.S. 115C-218. The North Carolina Charter School Performance Framework is used to understand the health and vitality of the charter school landscape over time.
