II. Finance Committee

A. Review of 90 Day Action Plan

Ms. Velez reviewed the components of the committee's 90 day action plan which includes:

- Preparation of the year zero budget
- Education Finance 101 training for all board members

Dr. Graham reported out to the committee that the year zero budget is being built in collaboration with David Loadholt with approximate targets based on forecasting provided by him. Dr. Graham also shared that the committee's 90-day action plan includes fund tracking and enrollment progress towards goals, which directly impacts the building of the year zero budget.

B. Review of Progress to Goals

Dr. Graham facilitated a discussion with the committee to provide an update on the progress to goals from the 90-day action plan components. The year zero budget is in progress with Mr. Loadholt and McCay Kiddy, LSC's external fiscal management firm. A training session is being scheduled for the committee in March to provide a general overview of education finance. Dr. Graham also shared the following additional updates:

- Monthly student enrollment tracking and reports (engagement currently underway with local day care centers to obtain an additional 92 lottery enrollment applications by the end of the month).
- A reminder that the current budget being utilized for operation includes no state funding - all is revenue generated from private donations.
- The federal CSP grant is 100% on track with the last claim submitted with funding being dispersed to the SCDE from the federal grant program.

C. Review of Relevant Reports & Documents

During this portion of the agenda, Dr. Graham and Ms. Velez jointly shared the highlights from the one-page financial dashboard for the last 30 days. The following items were covered:

- Student enrollment (97% fully enrolled with 58% of the 2:1 application ratio met)
- Fund balances (January) - Operations, donations, reserve, and personnel.
- Cash flow (January)
- Financial accountability (p-cards, CSP grant, and financial reporting)

It was emphasized that the fund balance and cash flow meets all healthy metrics (as of the date of the meeting).

- Operations fund: $88,372.54
- Donations fund: $377,608.27
- Reserve fund: $10,000

- Personnel fund: $187,987.35

Cash flow for January included a total of $65,798.60 from the operations fund (debit) and $149.74 being debited from the donations fund.

Dr. Graham shared with the committee that there are now four separate funds, as approved by the board at the last meeting. With regards to financial accountability, Dr. Graham shared the ongoing weekly meetings with Mr. Loadholt, bi-weekly meetings with McCay Kiddy, and monthly reports submitted to LSC senior leaders.
