C. Review of Relevant Documents & Reports

Dr. Graham and Dr. Ivey reviewed two documents with the committee - the results/recommendations from the curriculum study and the proposed 2021-22 SY academic calendar.

- K-1 Curriculum Recommendations
 - EL Education (English Language Arts)
 - Strong national ratings, standards alignment, foundational skills, culturally responsive, cross-curricular integration, and detailed teacher materials.
 - Project Lead the Way (STEM)
 - Internationally vetted, aligned with state science standards, hands-on
 - Will obtain FOSS kits at no charge to supplement science instruction.
 - Eureka (Math)
 - Strong national ratings with focus & coherence, rigor & math processes, standards alignment, & usability as well as included on the state adoption list (no charge).
 - Open Circle (Social Emotional Learning)
 - Evidence-based with positive outcomes, varied instructional strategies (open circles, discussions, role-playing, mindfulness) family engagement.
 - The staff is recommending EL (English Language Arts), Open Circle (SEL), Eureka (math), and Project Lead the Way (STEM) to the committee for recommendation to the full board.
 - 2021-22 Academic Calendar

- 190 scholar attendance days, weekly early release, one day of designated PD a month with built-in fall break and spring intercession, and it follows local school district breaks.

Directors McElveen and Thompson engaged staff in a comprehensive discussion regarding both documents. Questions that were asked about curriculum revolved around state compliance, alignment to LSC's charter application, and financial costs. Both directors expressed support for the staff's recommendations.

A follow-up discussion was held regarding the academic calendar regarding specifically the number of work days for teachers, alignment to the local school district, and the extend to which families were involved in the design of the calendar.

A final review of the teacher recruitment & selection process was facilitated by Dr. Ivey, outlining the five steps in the process and a sample of the results. Both Dr. Ivey and Dr. Graham expressed their satisfaction in the process, and Dr. Thompson expanded stating he appreciated the intentionality behind the increased rigor.
