B. New Business

• Summary of Key Points

- Approved previous meeting minutes
- Very impressed with the Invitational Tour and turnout.
- Have Greg send a thank-you letter/video for the Invitational Tour. Circle up with Teresa to see what Greg prefers. Send it out sooner rather than later.
- 1st or 2nd week of December for the next Invitational Tour. November 30th is ideal for bankers. Frank Edwards recommended reaching out to William Hodge out of Columbia.
- Follow up with Trevor T. Ivey to see who from SHAW came to the Invitational Tour on 10.19.
- Possibly contact the person at SHAW AFB in charge of families moving to Sumter.
- Try to get Beau White and Bob Smith at First Citizens Bank to come to the next tour.
- Faith leaders group -- have a single night invitational for them. Possibly November 16th.
- Network For Good will work with LSC from January 2022 - January 2023 for free. Roughly $400/mo to continue their fundraising support.
- Doing research around grants. Total fundraising goal is $2.5 million.
- Federal government sees LSC as 1 entity with 4 academies. We need to adjust so the Federal Government can recognize LSC as independent entities so we can get access to funding. Biggest funder should be the state and government.
- Recruiting this week at the Sumter Fair to get more scholars to apply. Dinasy Uoy is a point of contact for parents and new families. Possibly recruit at the YMCA, Dillon Park, Patriot Park and Burney Hope Center.
- Continue to leverage where kids go on evenings and weekends.
- As a board, let members know if there is additional support needed.
