II. Finance Committee

A. Review of Old Business

There was no old business discussed from the previous meeting.

B. New Business

• Summary of Key Points

- We need to pay the $150,000 bill from Quixote Foundation as soon as possible. Could use the line of credit to pay for it possibly
- Need to close the gap between Liberty and Quixote Foundation
- $1,000/week for snacks so we will cancel the afternoon snack. Instead, snacks are available in each classroom so if ever a student is hungry, they will have that option
- The Charter School District gave us access to funds based on our special ed needs. Roughly $15,000
- ESSER is finalizing funds and working on reimbursements. We will be reimbursed for P&I now
- Still waiting on the first disbursement of ESSER funds.
- Budget has not changed since last Finance meeting
- Liberty gets roughly $6500 per pupil vs the state has as their best schools. Those per pupil are on average $10,000
- We will have to fully finance site two
- Possibly go through a developer for our next building. Project could be completed in 18 months
- $20 million to build the next building.
- Key decisions in January and posting jobs that are competitive
- Stay mindful of how we spend our money and be as frugal as possible
