V. Executive Director's Report

A. Executive Director's Update

During this portion of the agenda, Dr. Graham provided the Executive Director's update on current progress to goals in the following three areas:

1. College and career readiness: we are above 90% school-wide in reading and math MAP growth targets. Currently our scholars are right at 50% personal RIT, which is where we need to be to reach that 90% by the end of the school year.

2. Operational Excellence: Scholar attendance and persistence are on track even due to Covid-19. Closing up Smart Fusion data. The new hiring season has officially begun for 22-23 staffing.
3. Mission Alignment: Mid-Year family survey is above 90%. Parent satisfaction is high according to the mid-year parent satisfaction survey. The Williams-Brice-Edwards Charitable Trust have finished their second and third installment of the one million dollar pledge and the money is in our donations account. We are closing out our December books and on track for our 22-23 budget. Finalized budget in April for next school year. Q2 wrapped up. MAP testing is complete. Dr. Ivey and Dr. Graham have been doing instructional walks throughout the campus on a weekly basis. Finally, we are processing the results of the Great Place to Work pulse check survey, which 92% of our staff completed to provide feedback on adjustments made to strengthen school culture, communication and collaboration, and to make LSC a safer and more rewarding workplace.

VI. Academy Highlights

A. Academy Highlights

Dr. Ivey provided the following academy highlights:

Mid-Year parent satisfaction surveys:

- 85% response rate

3. Looked into folks who can do some grant writing and reach out to help LSC write grants for the future and pursuing that now.

VIII. Additional New Business

A. 10-Year Strategic Plan

During this portion of the agenda, Dr. Graham highlighted the major takeaways from the Boards recent retreat facilitated by Simmons Lettre. He thanked the board members for their time and commitment for meeting one on one with Ms. Lettre. Dr. Graham emphasized that the big next steps will be for the board to finalize the expansion plan at the next board meeting.

B. Board Elections Process

During this portion of the agenda, Dr. Ivey shared the staffs proposed board elections process. He reminded the board that pursuant to, Title 59, chapter 40 of SC state law, the first board election of a newly authorized charter school must be held during the first Spring in which children are in the building and must be facilitated by the Public Charter Alliance of South Carolina. Dr. Ivey reviewed the by-laws, which state the board will be a seven or nine member board with five elected seats and five appointed seats, all with staggered terms. The staff is proposing that the board officially adopt its structure to reflect nine members according to the outline below:

- 3 Elected Seats (Expiring 2024)
- 2 Elected Seats (Expiring 2023)
- 2 Appointed Seats (Expiring 2024)
- 2 Appointed Seats (Expiring 2023)

The candidates that are interested in seeking a seat on the board must complete the candidate filing form (February 25-March 4). Afterwards, the Executive Committee (according to the by-laws) will meet to vet all candidates and finalize the appointed seats as well as presenting a slate of candidates for the five elected seats (March 9th at 8am). The Alliance will then post selected candidate's information online. Voting will then be held over a three day period (March 22-24th). All LSC employees and families will receive one vote. Ballots will be emailed to all eligible individuals by the Alliance. The election results will be certified by the Alliance on March 25th and all new board members will be sworn in at the March 28th meeting. Dr. Ivey said that the board would officially need to adopt this timeline and procedures.

Cameron Chandler made a motion to approve the staff's recommended board election and appointment timeline.

Kimberly Rauschenbach seconded the motion.

Ken Lee provided his proxy vote in favor of the motion to Dr. Rodney Thompson.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.
