II. Development

A. Unfinished Business from Previous Meeting

B. New Business

- Summary of Key Points

- KG has been in contact with Harry Lesain (Darla Moore Foundation) and the next steps include him coming to visit with Meeting Street Academy at LSC. Setting up a meeting for mid-April to have their Superintendent come which could increase our funding.
- TI and KG have been looking at grants and we just completed a 25k one for Covid Relief and an additional in the same value for curriculum from Building Hope.
- Ken Lee is working on getting some grants from BD. Ken is concerned about BD not being able to support LSC the way we need them to.
- Meagan spoke to Curtis about the Foundation giving some donations and it's dry right now.
- Once the Quixote club is established and operating, then they will be able to turn a profit.
- The Quixote club does not have enough staffing to help with fundraising.
- The committee is still looking for a part-time grant writer.
- The goal is to create a sustainable budget while being fully enrolled for the schools moving forward.
- Every time we open a school, we are able to ask for P&I grant.
