II. Committee Updates

A. Committee Updates

- Summary of Key Points
 - Dr. Khalil Graham reviewed roles and responsibilities.
 - Discussing members of each committee and deciding who would work best on each committee.
 - A potential avenue could be with the Headmaster of Wilson Hall as a collaborative thought partner. LSC would also need another thought partner from Sumter School District. Possibly looking at another Charter School to see if they can help.

- Ed Bynum wrote a check for the Quixote Foundation.
- The Development Committee members are good for now; we do not need to add members or adjust due to their schedules.
- The President of the Darla Moore Foundation is still interested in helping LSC.
- LSC needs to have at least 3-years under its belt before we open another charter school in Lake City.
- Gifford and Gantt would not have voting privileges; they would come into counsel and serve.
- Gifford could potentially connect LSC with other financial people.
- Student to teacher ratio is 1:14 for the classrooms.
- K-2 will be at 15 School St. Afterwards; we will need to find another building. K-2 will have a 2:1 ratio for the classrooms.
- For 3rd grade, there will be one teacher per classroom.

III. Executive Session

A. Purposes of a Discussion of Negotiations of Incident to Proposed Contractual Agreements

B. Next Steps

- Final Action Items

- The Governance Committee will meet monthly through July and then reassess to see how often the committee needs to meet
- Kimberly Rauschenbach to become a co-chair of the Governance committee
- Dr. Graham to reach out to Chris Navaro from Meeting St Academy to be a thought partner with LSC.
- Chairman Thompson will take the lead on finding someone from Sumter School District to become an academic thought partner with LSC.
- Chairman Thompson to look for potential accounting candidates for LSC. He thinks Gifford Shaw would be ideal for helping LSC as he has an accounting degree.

- Board Recommendations

- Have a two-page document stating who is on each committee and who is the chair of each committee to be posted in Board on Track.
- Dr. Thompson to serve as the chair of the Finance committee.
- Dr. Graham recommends that Gantt stays on the Finance committee moving forward.
- Chairman Thompson to discuss with Dr. Thompson which committee he can come off of, either Finance or Academic.

- The governance committee to take over recruitment for a member of the Academic committee outside of LSC.
- The Finance Committee may need a longer time to have the meeting. 90-minutes vs 60-minute meetings.
- Dr. Graham suggests that the 4th grade have two teachers per room.
