A. Review of Old Business

There was no old business to discuss.

B. Review of New Business

• Summary of Key Points

- Dr. Ivey reviewed end-of-year MAP data, Org health, staffing, and plans for next year.
- 3 big data points that are the most equitable are: abilities at the beginning of the year (RIT), projected growth met, and growth percentile.
- Over 100% of projected growth met can sometimes mean it can be high due to exceptional teachers. Not only met but exceeded projected growth.
- Dr. Ivey reviewed the Spring reading scores for kindergarten and 1st grade. Spring math scores are stronger than reading.
- This is teacher-level data that has been reviewed. Data is mostly feedback and not a testament to who is a great teacher or not.
- Spring math scores are stronger than reading.
- When testing in the fall, we did not have any year-long data. We had a formula based on the projections we had.
- Requesting scores from the SSD to have some comparison data for LSC.
- LSC now has data for our returning students for next year. We currently have 50 students total who will need additional support over the summer (called summer PRIDE).
- Shasta Smith and Rashyra Smiling will be leading summer PRIDE.
- Summer PRIDE will be 8-2 pm for the week; July 18th-22nd.
- In fall, 65% of staff said it was GPTW and for Spring it is now 83%.
- LSC finished 2nd in the country compared to other charter schools in the country. We exceeded IDEA public schools (78%) and Uplift (71%).
- Dr. Ivey reviewed the GPTW survey data points. Our organizational goal is 85% and we are at 83%.
- The growth overall is really encouraging although we did not meet the goal.
- Parent satisfaction is very high and during a parent focus group, parents are very pleased and eager to help their children in the school. Many parents had solutions for LSC moving forward.
- LSC qualifies for 72k in staffing money for a school resource officer for safety concerns moving forward.
- LSC did some social-emotional learning with the students to see if they are happy at LSC.
- 7 children will be retained this school year. 4 parents appealed and LSC policy states that Mr. Logan can consult the Network Team and can be denied.
- Dr. Ivey shared the master schedule for next year which teachers are excited about.

- Talent update – needing 2 more TF to have one per classroom.

VI. Closing Items

A. Next Steps

- Final Action Items
 - Dr. Ivey will meet with Tanya Peckham on 6/17 to discuss exactly how summer PRIDE will go.
 - Meeting the week of 6/20 for comparison data for GPTW.
 - Dr. Ivey to look into a way of children getting enrichment classes vs being pulled out for Academic intervention (possibly after-school clubs and activities).
 - Dr. Ivey will reach out to SEL Tracy for social and emotional learning (Deanna Brown would be the best person to reach out for this).
 - Tracking the progress of retained students for the following year. Could be a recurring action step next year.
- Board Recommendations
 - Have parents understand what it means to be a part of the Liberty family and the expectations set out. Making clear the support as well and asking for help. Could be worthwhile in an OCS process.
