A. Next Steps

Action Items

- The leadership team will follow up with staff members about feedback from Possip and send praises as well.
- Academic board committee members to follow up with concerned parents.
- Dr. Ivey will request a schedule for Mr. Reardon for mainstreaming SPED students.
- The board members will visit two (2) local charter schools to observe their preschool programs and discuss the funding (Dr. Ivey will schedule these visits for the fall).
- The committee will create a Preschool Taskforce for SY 24-25, as well as a Uniform Task Force to further explore any possible revisions to the current policy & design the elementary academy uniform.
- The calendar adoption is now recommended to be on a 2-year cycle - Dr. Ivey will circle back next month with the local school district administrators to align with them.
- LSC will create a series of video message updates to respond to some of the Possip feedback (how-to video for "pick my kid" to help parents understand the importance of safety & following Code of Conduct).

Board Recommendations

- The board recommends full adoption of the academic operations policy to the board.
- The proposed changes to the uniform policy were recommended for full approval.
- Give each scholar one uniform at BOY celebration and families can donate it back to the cause if they do not need it (an annual reoccurring amount of $15K for uniform assistance to provide one free uniform to all scholars).
