Old Business from Previous Meeting

- Dr. Ivey and Ken Lee reviewed both Pilgrims Pitch and WBEC grants. Both pitches have been sent and we are waiting for further information.
- Dr. Ivey gave an update on all current grant's that have been submitted and/or approved to date using the grant writer.

B. New Business

- Dr. Ivey updated the committee on grants that have been submitted. We have submitted an application for the Synovus Grant and its intended use is for "Project Lead the Way." There have also been two smaller grants submitted for environmental projects- we will hear back their decision near the end of November.
- Dr. Ivey and the Finance Committee discussed a number of grants that are currently in varies stages of being completed using the new grant portal that was discussed at the August meeting.
- Ms. Brunson brought forth two new grants that will be submitted to the grant writer for next steps.
- The committee was informed that the Tuomey Foundation denied LSC's grant application because they only give to hospitals or other medical related fields.
- We have applied for the Louder than Words Grant with the intention to use this grants funds for Social Emotional Learning (Fly Five)
- Mr. Thompson is working closely with other industrial leaders here in Sumter to secure relationships and identify their ability to work together for the future of Liberty.
- Dr. Ivey gave an update about the New School Venture Fund
- Dr. Ivey gave an update about financials for this school year as well as the line of credit.
- Dr. Ivey updated the committee members about PAC candidates and the timeline for hiring
- The committee discussed various due dates for grants including a grant from Georgia Pacific being due 10/30
- The UNUM Grant will be submitted to the grant writer as well.
- The committee would like to discuss the "branding" of hallways or areas of the school. They would like to see industrial branding in the school that's based in STEM- Dr. Ivey mentioned the Capital Campaign. Every classroom will ideally be named after an industry.

III. Other Business

A. Agenda Items from Committee Members

- Ken Lee is going to focus on the local industry contacts here in the next two weeks
