Dr. Ivey and Mrs. Hardy gave an update on behalf of the leadership team to provide the new Rally Cry for the remaining months of the 2023 school year. After meeting for an offsite at the end of the 22-23 school year, the leadership team was tasked in creating a Rally Cry with a thematic goal and a realistic timeline. It was during this offsite that the Rally Cry "2 Campuses, 1 Brand" was launched. From this, three new values were named along with a plan to monitor our progress to goals including,

1. Scale up MTSS
2. Implement Progress Monitoring with Fidelity
3. Implement Collective Leadership
4. Leverage Operational Efficiency
5. Grow Financial Strength.

Each of these goals is being monitored at a weekly meeting, where the leadership team is coding each of them red, yellow, or green with clearly listed metrics to hold ourselves accountable.

B. Current State of Academic Achievement Data & Intervention Pyramid

The Academy Directors gave an update on academic achievements at their respective campuses from the fall MAP data and also introduced the intervention pyramid. The intervention pyramid includes three tiers of support that every scholar will receive at LSC. Every teacher has identified the "bubble children" and they hope with a little extra support, these children will be able to move to a lower tier of support so that all scholars are receiving the support that they need individually as well as collectively in the classroom.
