II. Committee Updates

A. Committee Updates

1. Dr. Ivey gave a 30-60-90 Day Update regarding Mr. Montgomery. He shared information about the culture of the school and insight to the building of relationships happening at that campus.
2. Mr. Thompson and Dr. Ivey gave an update about Charter School Growth Fund and the phone calls that have taken place since their last meeting. CSGF will be attending the board meeting virtually on Monday, 8/26.
3. Updates From All Other Committees
  1. Ms. Chandler provided an update regarding POSSIP Results, 10 Day Enrollment Count, and the current scholar profile.
4. Dr. Thompson brought the rest of the committee members up to speed on the current construction LOC. They engaged in a conversation regarding non-revolving and revolving. The finance committee will make the recommendation to the full board on Monday to move from non-revolving to revolving LOC. This will require a vote from the full board.
5. The Finance Committee will also make the recommendation to the full board to discuss short term & long term financing options for facility expansions at the full board meeting on Monday.

III. Other Business

A. Agenda Items from Committee Members

During this time, Dr. Ivey presented the Joint Emergency Action plans that have been co-created with representatives from the Sumter Police Department, Sumter Sheriff's Office, and each campus' School Resource Officer. Dr. Ivey reviewed the plans with the full committee and informed the committee that agreements with Badcock Furniture (EA Campus) and Walker Church of God (PA Campus) have been renewed for evacuation sites and that, if ever needed, the Sumter Civic Center would be a parent reunification site. Updates were also provided regarding the implementation of the campus weapons detector systems and the calendar of safety drills for the year. The next safety drill is scheduled for September 16 at both campuses to practice lockdown procedures. Dr. Ivey recommended to the committee that the JEAP plans, as presented, be adopted. The next step, as presented by Dr. Ivey, would be to meet with each campus safety & DIRT (Disturbance Incident Response Team) on August 28 to formally review each campus plan.

(Tajma) LaShea Davis made a motion to approve the Primary & Elementary Academy Joint Emergency Action Plans.

Cameron Chandler seconded the motion.

The committee VOTED to approve the motion.
