II. Finance Committee

A. Old Business

The Finance Committee members reviewed last month's action steps and reviewed any outstanding information from the month of August.

B. New Business

- Dr. Ivey shared the updates in the internal control procedures to include p-card reconciliation and materials ordering. Ms. Rhodes will take on these additional tasks as one of her Leader Fellow responsibilities and Ms. Peebles will take on filing to help ensure that Ms. Gadson and Mr. Shaw remains on track for FY 24-25.
- Dr. Ivey gave an update on Federal Reimbursements. We have collected about 98% of all reimbursements available.
- Mr. Shaw reviewed the revenue and expenditures for the month of August and what was available for the month of September. We are currently in a deficit on monthly revenue because we have not received full state funding for the additional 144 scholars. That final funding is anticipated to be received any time now. He went through some of the line items with the board members to review lines that are on track and some lines have been used in full.
  - There was additional discussion regarding food services and preparation for future kitchen repairs or materials replacement.
  - The committee members also discussed the impact of the new facility on the budget and briefly discussed a new line item that will come from the newest facility.
- The committee members discussed the CSGF visit and action steps to come from their visit. The committee members will meet with one of the CSGF committee members to discuss their concerns and continue to work in partnership with them.
