III. Academic Presentations

A. 30-60-90 HMH Update

The committee received a 30-60-90 day HMH Update

- Ms. Carlisle provided the Academic Committee with a recap of the first 30 days using the HMH curriculum. She has spent the first 30 days teaching along with the teachers and offering a helping hand with the lesson plans. She has modeled an HMH reading block lesson in the 2/6 of the kindergarten classrooms, 6/6 of the first grade classrooms, 4/6 of the second grade classrooms, 2/6 of the third grade classrooms, and 2/6 of the fourth grade classrooms. She recorded each of these lessons and shared them with all of the lead teachers in that grade level.
- Amira was introduced to the parents at the Primary Academy this past week during the Open House and will also be introduced to the Elementary Academy. Both campuses are going to integrate Amira at home with a fun 100 book reading challenge that will count towards the Million Word Reading Challenge.
- Dr. Ivey and Ms. Carlisle reviewed the Network Rally Cry- HMH Pillar. There are five parts to this pillar of the Rally Cry.

B. 2024-25 Gifted and Talented Program Update

They also received an presentation from Ms. Hray regarding the Gifted and Talented Program.

- 16% of the LSC population is being served in different aspects. They qualify for these services by their MAP scores. These scholars must have scored in the 94% percentile or higher of their grade levels. After October, the Iowa test scores and the CogAt scores will also be taken into consideration for data.
- Ms. Hray explained the different pathways to gifted identification. She also went into great detail regarding the challenges.
