V. Board Retreat Continued

A. Review Board Goals through June

Chris presents the combined Goals and Scope & Sequence document.

The goals are:

1. Board engagement: By January 2022 (and ongoing), the Board is fully staffed with board members who have committed to and are engaging fully with the board as defined in a written board member agreements document.
2. Needs assessment/understanding: By March 2022, the School Performance Committee has shared an overall picture of RISE's school performance and board members are able to articulate common challenges and needs of the school and what they look like in practice.
3. Support for CEO/CSO:
 - By May 2022, the Board has advised and consented to a bond issue and purchase of the school's permanent facility.
 - By May 2022, the Board has advised and consented to a five-year strategic plan for the organization.
4. Development: By June 2022, the Board has led fundraising efforts that have brought in $X for the school year.
5. Self-assessment and planning: By June 2022, the Board has self-assessed their performance and has a year-long plan for board business and improvement for the 2022-2023 School Year.
