II. Governance

A. Discuss board member give/get status

All but 1 board "give" pledges have been made, Lindsay will follow up.

Work to do regarding our "get" goals. Some have hit funding goal, but a lot of work to get to 250 fundraiser goal.

K. Cape presented the give/get accountability & support calendar and the template board member fundraising plan. L. Phillips proposed we engage this process starting now by having each board member complete an individual fundraising plan.

O. Ammon asked that a signature be added to the bottom of the board member fundraising plan template, and suggested we offer the blank template plans to board members to use for the "get" through the end of the year.

O. Ammon raised the question of what should be done if someone commits to their "get," but then does not deliver upon it. O. Bajracharya suggested we have a conversation monthly to stay present to results to date, expected results, and requests for support and resources. O. Ammon suggested it be a requirement that board members notify the Governance committee early if they expect not to fulfill their "get," given the implications for the budget.

B.

Update on connector outreach and board member matching program

M. Borrego provided an update on meetings with connectors to assist with board recruitment. 3 meetings with strong connectors have been completed. They have yet to yield board member candidates, but the group is confident that we will be introduced to good candidates in the coming weeks. J. Creed suggested the committee follow up with individuals who we were in discussions with earlier in the year. M. Borrego recommended the Governance committee utilize the board recruitment protocol as documented. Also, efforts working with the consultant to prospect new board members have not been successful.

O. Ammon requested a chart that shows monthly giving with fiscal years overlaid.

M. Borrego asked the group to consider planning for a March retreat. J. Creed requested last year's board retreat agenda from O. Bajrachrya, who committed to send it. M. Borrego to have L. Renfort confirm the March dates for the retreat and update board members. O. Ammon suggested O. Bajrachrya lead it with the new chair/co-chairs.

III. Resource Development

A. Review Fundraising Dashboard
