C. Executive Director Evaluation

Mr. Spirer left the meeting, and the Board began its discussion of the 2018-19 CEO evaluation. Mr. Grant discussed the process and the sources of information for the CEO evaluation, and he explained that he had prepared a written summary of the views of Board members, the CEO's direct reports, and three teachers. The draft summary was provided to the Board members.

Board members shared their views of Mr. Spirer's performance. Multiple members said they viewed Mr. Spirer's performance positively over the prior year, and cited the retention of staff at SPCS. Another highlighted a good discussion she had with Mr. Spirer about scaling the school and another discussed Mr. Spirer's financial acumen and development in this area.

The Board discussed the delegation of the managing of day-to-day affairs of the school from the CEO to the Principal. Board members agreed that this delegation, which occurred during 2018-19, went smoothly. The Board discussed the setting of goals for 2019-20. The Board agreed that the final document, comprising the Board's evaluation for 2018-19, would be presented at the September board meeting. At 7:45 pm, Mr. Spirer rejoined the meeting, and there were brief, positive comments from the Board about his performance during 2018-19.
