II. Governance Items

A. Executive Director Evaluation

Sarah presented documents summarizing executive director (ED) compensation trends within the Massachusetts charter school landscape and Springfield Prep's new internal compensation performance system.

- Bill's current salary is $174,000 with a $5,000 bonus approved last year.
- The committee acknowledged the significant salary adjustment made the previous year to align with market rates and performance metrics.
- The MCPSA salary data shows Bill's salary falls within the higher quartiles for schools of similar size (<500 students).
- It was highlighted that Boston-based schools skew the salary data due to higher cost-of-living adjustments, while Springfield Prep's location in Western Massachusetts has lower costs.
- Comparative data from Springfield Prep's internal performance-based salary band system showed Bill's compensation aligned with his years of service (10th year).
- The committee considered a 3% increase to $179,220 and a 4% increase to $180,960.
- Discussion centered on balancing competitiveness with fiscal responsibility.
- Consensus was reached to increase the salary to $180,000 and provide a $5,000 performance bonus, recognizing Bill's leadership and the school's continued strong performance.

R. Leonard made a motion to recommend approving a salary increase to $180,000 and provide a $5,000 performance bonus.

S. Balogun seconded the motion.

The committee VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

The board discussed Bill's performance, with a focus on accomplishments, areas for growth, and plans for the upcoming year:

Prior year accomplishments:

- Delegation of operational responsibilities to Managing Director, Ben, was praised as a significant step toward optimizing Bill's focus on strategic priorities.
- Efforts to identify internal successors, specifically Jess, were acknowledged, although additional development opportunities were discussed.
- Preparations for launching the alumni support program were highlighted, emphasizing its importance in tracking graduate success and strengthening connections with former students.

Future Focus:

- The committee emphasized the need for Bill to continue delegation efforts beyond Ben, encouraging the broader leadership team to take on additional responsibilities.
- Tracking alumni outcomes post-graduation was identified as a critical metric for evaluating Springfield Prep's long-term impact.
- Expansion of the alumni support program to include structured graduate tracking and evaluation was suggested to complement this effort.

Succession Planning:

- The committee discussed its need to continue to keep succession planning a topic of consideration.
- The committee discussed the importance of providing targeted leadership development for senior leaders, such as Jess and other potential internal candidates, to prepare them for succession.
- The committee discussed Bill's focus on maintaining a strong organizational culture and continuity during any future leadership transitions.
- The committee discussed some of the pros and cons of considering external candidates during any transition, including potential risks and the need for robust change management.
