II. Management

A. End of Year Update

B. Peterson and A. Cox shared a management update.

1. Highlights from Year 1

- Launched the school!
- Field trips - Successful implementation of our goal to make our community as our learning space.
- CompSci & Adventure - Strong teachers to support these elements of our curriculum
- Quests - Launched and still evolving
- 3 family and friends events - One very joyful dinner hosted 200+ families
- Medicaid billing - Infrastructure in place to be even more effective in coming years
- Nutrition program - Great recognition from various agencies on the strength of our meal programs
- B&G Club Partnership - Highly successful and positive experience for both B&G Club and FPS. B&G Club was able to serve an additional 100 students as a result of our partnership!

- Federal CSP Grant awarded to FPS
- Family satisfaction - Very positive responses from families about their child's/children's experiences at FPS

2. Academic Growth in 2019-20 School Year

- Student growth in math in grades K-3 was very strong and in the 90th percentile (well above NWEA MAP national norms)
- Student growth in reading in K-2 was strong and in the 78th percentile or higher (well above NWEA MAP national norms)
- Growth 3rd grade reading was an outlier. Growth was below the national norm. Stronger support and coaching, team literacy training, and a dedicated resource to improve reading outcomes are already in place for the coming year to ensure high expectations are met.

3. Summer highlights

- Hiring
- Facility Prep
- Curriculum Prep
- Back office Prep
- Planning
- B&G Club in session! In the coming year, more than 90 students are attending after school programs at the Club.

4. Top 3 Priorities

- Equity Lens & Professional Development
- Staff Support & Coaching
- Literacy Program Coaching
