EL Support Plan:

We were fortunate to have Elizabeth Jimenez, professor at the University of Hawaii and EL expert, visit our campus last week. She walked through classes and shared her insight about how we can improve our practice to meet the needs of English learners, and she helped our leadership team develop an approach for professional development for the second semester that will help our teachers improve their overall practice in support of ELs.

Benchmark Testing (iReady): Benchmark testing will be taking place the week of December 6th. We are eager to see how our students have grown over the last few months and we are excited to have our data so we can start making plans for second semester. Generally speaking, our students should be about 50% on the way to their typical growth for the year, or 50% on the way to their stretch growth (depending on the goals they set with their teachers). Once we have our data, we will be analyzing it with our teams, and we will setting goals, benchmarks, and strategies for learning in the second semester. We will also use this data to inform our planning for PD so we can meet the needs of all of our teachers, leading to better instruction for all of our students.

Teacher Support and Areas of Focus: Research shows that instructional support is best accomplished by a team of people rather than just one individual. This year at BCCS, we have 6 people providing support to our teachers so we can meet the needs of our teachers while also pushing the growth we need to see this year. While our goal is for all students to grow, our focus is to see growth for our subgroup populations as well. The rest of the Director's report is uploaded and available on BoardOnTrack. The director was also in attendance and available to respond to any board member inquiries.

Parent Partnerships

MORCS hosted High School Choice night on November 17th, 2021! We invited the following neighborhood high schools to present the highlights of their respective programs with 8th grade students and families so that they can make informed decisions on where to attend high school. MORCS also hosted a meeting with parents on November 23rd to remind them about vaccination expectations, to update them on current vaccination data at MORCS, and to provide information about what Independent study programs look like.

Academic Update

i-Ready testing The window for the second diagnostic for iReady reading and math has opened this week 12/6/2022. We look forward to analyzing the data with the students, parents, staff, and board! Results will be provided to the YPICS Academic Excellence in January.

Professional Development

Teachers are currently participating in a Professional Development Cycle centered around checks for understanding. Using resources from Teach Like a Champion and Get Better Faster, teachers are engaging in critical friends groups in order to discuss and plan ways of more effectively and expediently getting a snapshot of how well the entire class (as well as individual students) are progressing towards mastery of the learning objective. Paired with the previous area of Professional Development focus, exemplars, we are equipping the teaching staff to set and communicate high academic expectations and then accurately assess how the class is progressing towards these learning goals. The rest of the Director's report is uploaded and available on BoardOnTrack. The director was also in attendance and available to respond to any board member inquiries.

Celebrations

College Applications All eligible BCCHS students who qualified for admission to UC or CSU institutions have completed the application process. Application to the CA Community College System as well as private universities through the Common App will begin in January.

Homecoming BCCHS held its first Homecoming Dance in 2 years on Friday, November 19th. Students and staff joined their efforts to produce a fun and artistically rich evening. There were beautiful decorations, great food, and photography that will provide memories for a lifetime.

Service Learning Projects One of the hallmarks of YPICS schools is project-based service learning. BCCHS has never implemented this hallmark consistently and universally as an expected schoolwide learner result, until now. We have taken staff and students through a process of exploration and training so as to prepare them for a semester of service-learning PBL projects that should result in students making a difference in their community on many fronts. All students will be programmed into a course called "projects" for the second semester. It will have a bearing on their cumulative GPA, it will be team taught, and it will be student-driven.

Reading Intervention 10% of our student body has had the opportunity to work in small groups with a K-12 literacy specialist for 3 full months of the first semester. This week we will administer the MAPS academic progress exams, and hopefully gain some insight into how exactly these students have grown in their capacity to tackle grade-level reading tasks, both fiction and expository text. It should be an encouraging report card!

The Director's report is uploaded and available on BoardOnTrack. The director was also in attendance and available to respond to any board member inquiries.
