G. Continued Discussion of Shift to Operating Board

- The Board discussed the tools and resources to govern MACS.
- Discussed Ideas of How to Use as Governing Board

1. Meeting Structure

1. Milton suggested keeping the meeting structure the same for Year 1.
2. Justin suggested creating more guidance for Kolt's Korner or possibly a Academic Dashboard. Justin also asked about a parent component of the meeting, Aarica suggested a Parent Liaison, PTA or Parent Committee (volunteers).
3. Chasity shared that the Leadership Team will create a Parent Advisory Council for MACS where they will serve as an engagement committee for existing and potential MACS families. Aarica suggested adjusting the name and allowing for the parent group to have a section in the board meeting to share out updates.

2. Committees

1. Aarica asked the board which committees would they like to dissolve since MACS is transitioning to a open school this fall.
 1. Tracy suggested dissolving the Community Engagement Committee but transitioning the MACS volunteers to a different committee that center's around engagement.
 2. Erin suggested that the HR Committee be dissolved since all documents have been established to begin the school year. Erin suggested that she serve as a guidance and support for Kolt and leadership with HR matters.
 3. Justin suggested that the Academic committee stay the as is to monitor progress towards the CPF. He then stated that He and Ashlee could serve as advisors once the committee is no longer needed as frequently.

3. CPF - Academic, Financial & Operational

1. Aarica went through each portion with the board to gain clarification and understanding of the CPF and what we will be measured on in Academic, Finance, and Operations.
2. The Finance Committee suggested looking at the CPF with the CFO quarterly to ensure compliance.

H. Upcoming Board Meetings - July & Board Retreat
