-Pat on Enrollment - 97% chose to come back next year.

-Moving towards a lottery, so we are trying a program called "Lotteries." The Charter Commission is willing to pay for it.

-Threshold lottery is on the horizon as well.

-Evan talked about the REV folks coming to visit, and getting the word out about what our school does.

-Career and College Prep. - Working with GEARUP has been great. The offer a lot more opportunities.

-We have been short on staff in the building, but our staff has been really pitching in and helping each other out.

-The By All MeANS Campaign is launching at the end of the month. We have a letter and flyer drafted, as well as a mailing list.

-LD550 is the bill to support funding for outdoor education for public schools if Board Members want to call and support it.

B. Q2 Financial Overview/Audit Update/Title Grants Update

Ashley - The audit - We should have the update back by the 31st.

-Q2 - Revenue right where we should be.

-We need to keep an eye on office supplies and transportation repairs, especially for next year.

C. Board Composition and Future

Robert - We currently have 10 members (as of today) of the board. Some will be leaving in June.

1. Recruiting new board members for June.

-Kim - MOFGA's Quarterly Newsletter and Maine Farmland Trust.

2. Put together a small group to find board members - Let Robert know if you want to join.
3. Posting a notice in our newsletter, interest form, etc.
