Principal Report (Mandy Breuer, Principal)

Four days into GCA 3.0! Summer Institute recap video. Math growth schoolwide at 14%. Reading jumped from 11.9 to 19.5%. 14.6% students scored average or above in ELA. 8.3% scored above standard in math. 4th grade - 4% scored at or above standards. How can we be more EFFICIENT? Focus professional development around environmental stewardship for best practices and academic growth. Seven environmental partnerships during the summer institute, including Kagan institute, focusing on classroom management. New in 3.0 - 2nd-5th strategic coaching around academics; one teacher to focus on ELA, one teacher to focus on Math. Every Thursday for the entire school year, teachers and learning guides will have the opportunity to meet and collaborate. Launching NOW! First units of study. TK working on identities, ourselves, families and community. Kinder - approved for a monarchs movement at FCZ. 1st - The Turtle Project. 2nd - Natural systems to improve the future, 3rd - Maglev Marvels, 4th - Energy Change/ Transformations, 5th - Our story in the Stars.

CEO Report (Robert Golden, President & CEO)

Word of the year: EFFICIENT. Excellence. GOLDEN. Silicons Schools - It's the culture and the way we train our teachers that will carry us from one school to another. 322 students currently enrolled. 14 available spots in TK. 175 students on the waitlist. 312-315 ADA (4th day of school). Recent meetings with Fresno Chaffee Zoo to better our partnership. Principal Mandy has been working diligently with the FCZ education team. FCZ will now be taking care of our zoo memberships and events. Working towards joint fundraising to build the new facility. The next meeting is set for August 24th. Director of Philanthropy hire in-house. Their focus is to bring revenue to GCA and this partnership. Set formal interview for August 29th for the top 5 applicants. Officially a community school with a 5 year grant (Community Schools Grant). 180k grant from ASES. Communication with new potential financial partners. Modulars have been installed and completed. Recent conversation with PCSD regarding their efforts with the modulars. Stay tuned for updates. August 29th/ early September - estimated time to finalize construction documents.
