II. Academics

A. COVID 19 Update

Ms. Villegas and Dr. Tracy provided an update on the roadmap for the 2020-21 school year to cover COVID-19 contingencies

The school needs to submit the Jumpstart and Distance Learning plans to NC DPI. By July 1, the KHS administration anticipates the state will announce expectations and guidelines schools should follow as they prepare for the upcoming year.

B. Annual Update: Special Education, English Learners, and Academically and Intellectually Gifted

Ms. Jackson provided the annual update on the special education, English learners, and academically and intellectually gifted programs at KHS.

KHS recently submitted its documentation regarding these programs, and NC DPI has provided some feedback and guidance regarding the AIG program at KHS:

- How KHS identifies students for AIG Programs; and,

- How KHS holds itself accountable to success.

These aspects of the programs are being reviewed, and Ms. Jackson expects to have the changes prepared in time for board approval at the September 2020 board meeting.

III. Governance

A. Executive Director Report

Dr. Tracy provided his ED report.

Enrollment: wait list is being utilized, and staff is using social media to recruit scholars for classes with enrollment capacity and no present names on the wait list.

Revised Mission (Update)

This item was tabled to the next meeting.

G. Updated 2020-21 Calendar

Ms. Vargas provided an updated calendar for the 2020-21 school year. The new calendar addresses changes required as a part of recently passed SB 704. Of particular, the new calendar ensures KHS:

- Provides for 185 days or 1,025 hours of instruction with an additional five remote instruction days.
- Provides five, individually separate and distinct full instructional days.
- Sets the first day of classes for the 2020-21 school year to August 17, 2020 to align with the new start date for all LEA schools.

B. Paris made a motion to Accept the submitted calendar as submitted by the administration.

S. McGarrah seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.
