II. Key Agenda Items & Presentations

A. Enrollment Report

Ms. Vargas presented the 2024 - 2025 enrollment report, accurate as of July. At this time there is a wait list for 4th, 5th and 6th grade. Bloomwell marketing generated over 330,000 impressions over the past month leading to nearly 50 application starts.

B. Facilities Update

Ms. Jackson presented facilities work that was done to the interior, spoke about the upcoming light study, and HVAC issues. Estimates are that Mr. KT will have interior work completed by the end of the week in preparation for the start of school. HVAC systems will continue with the preventive maintenance protocols by Building Success. The installer for the HVAC units in the elementary school, MTS came last week to service the units. Building Success, the company responsible for the middle school, is currently servicing those units. Air conditioning units in elementary are working properly, units in the middle school are currently being serviced.

Early playground renderings were reviewed for color, functionality and feasibility. There is a roughly 12 week timeline for play structure turnaround.

C. Welcome Mr. McFadden - Dean of Culture

Mr. McFadden (Mr. Mac), our new Dean of Culture was introduced and welcomed to the school.

Cieraca Rhodes, our new PTA President, and current parent, was introduced and welcomed to the role.

(a) (1) To prevent the disclosure of information that is privileged or confidential pursuant to the law of this State or of the United States, or not considered a public record within the meaning of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes. (3) To consult with an attorney employed or retained by the public body in order to preserve the attorney-client privilege between the attorney and the public body, which privilege is hereby acknowledged. General policy matters may not be discussed in a closed session and nothing herein shall be construed to permit a public body to close a meeting that otherwise would be open merely because an attorney employed or retained by the public body is a participant. The public body may consider and give instructions to an attorney concerning the handling or settlement of a claim, judicial action, mediation, arbitration, or administrative procedure. If the public body has approved or considered a settlement, other than a malpractice settlement by or on behalf of a hospital, in closed session, the terms of that settlement shall be reported to the public body and entered into its minutes as soon as possible within a reasonable time after the settlement is concluded. (6) To consider the qualifications, competence, performance, character, fitness, conditions of appointment, or conditions of initial employment of an individual public officer or employee or prospective public officer or employee; or to hear or investigate a complaint, charge, or grievance by or against an individual public officer or employee. General personnel policy issues may not be considered in a closed session. A public body may not consider the qualifications, competence, performance, character, fitness, appointment, or removal of a member of the public body or another body and may not consider or fill a vacancy among its own membership except in an open meeting. Final action making an appointment or discharge or removal by a public body having final authority for the appointment or discharge or removal shall be taken in an open meeting.
