V. Discussion and Approval Items

A. CAO Update

Tina Hernandez, Chief Academic Officer, updated the board on the 2023-2024 academic vision in connection with achievement outcomes. Tina then previewed the systems that will help LCPS achieve its goals, such as coaching, culture, and data-driven instruction. Tina also revisited why EL Education is a strong partnership for LCPS per the questions of the last board meeting.

The board commented on the clarity of the CAO's work and vision for the upcoming school year and strong academic systems. The board asked about how the mindset work will occur on campuses with suggestions around student involvement.

B. Finance Update

Rich Harrison provided the board updates on key aspects that impact LCPS funding, such as enrollment rates, special education numbers, and the Bond Quarterly Report, and previewed the Budget Revision that is due on October 4th.

The board asked questions on the special education student numbers, special education staffing, and how closely LCPS came with appropriate budgeting. The board asked for enrollment numbers by LEA and Rich responded with how LCPS staff are analyzing appropriate next steps.

Rich Harrison responded with updates on which grades are most impacted by the numbers and how LCPS remains a primary choice for families who have special education students.

Anna Martin, Chief Operating Officer, provided updates on special education outsourced staffing contracts.

C. Vote: Approval of Unaudited Actuals

M. Milner made a motion to approve the Unaudited Actuals from LCPS finances from the 2022-2023 school year.

A. Ocegueda seconded the motion.

Rich Harrison explained the differences between unaudited actuals in comparison to budgeted items from the LCPS budget for 2022-2023. The board had no questions.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
