III. Discussion Items:

A. CEO Report, Reflections, and Update

Rich Harrison, CEO, previewed the Board of Directors on academic performance, attendance and chronic absenteeism, financial health and responsibility, and staff retention. Rich spoke about these areas with plans, successes, and areas for growth.

The board asked about addendum deadlines for staff renewal, where Anna Martin, Chief Operating Officer, provided details about the deadline for teachers and other staff.

The board asked about chronic absenteeism causes. Rich responded with the differing challenges in specific grade bands. Rich also spoke about hopeful future grant opportunities to support initiatives that may help solve root problems contributing to chronic absenteeism. The board commented on previous government initiatives to address the issue and past successful programs.

Rich responded about proposed ideas from stakeholder feedback on what may incentivize further attendance.

The board recommended how to further improve the addendum process to stay competitive in the job market in filling open positions. The board commented on opportunities to stay strategic in supporting staff roles and LCPS needs.

B. CAO Report, Reflections and Update

Members of the board gave a brief Academic Committee update and praised the productiveness of the meeting and the clarity of the academic work. The board suggested for future processes about additional time for academic shareouts.

Tina Hernandez, Chief Academic Officer, gave highlights on the academic program, reminding the board that the academic team was going to focus on focal grade levels and gave updates on those grades in terms of their Interim Assessment data. Tina spoke about the focus on specific grades that principals coach on, which resulted in upward trending interim assessment performance in those grades. Tina also discussed specific strategies sites are using for continuously improved instruction.

The board asked about how the academic team measures engagement. Tina responded with how the academic team utilized an external partner to conduct a student survey. She briefed how students responded that students wish for more engagement in classes but that they feel joy within the schools.

The board asked about the impact of the literacy curriculum from Bookworms. Tina spoke to AimswebPlus data showing improved foundational skills data and that LCPS will continue to refine the literacy program and how to best implement the curriculum in future school years. Rich commented that LCPS was a pre-conference school site for a recent Oakland literacy conference, where visitors echoed some of the literacy aspects that are showing as successful.

The board asked about the academic team's ability to simplify any teacher protocols that may create positive culture lifts. Tina responded that she and the academic team will look into these proposals further.

The board asked about Interim Assessment data and teachers who need support. Tina responded that shared services Directors of Academics will be providing additional coaching for certain teachers. Tina also spoke about building a positive data culture.

The board suggested multiple teacher-leader models and supports. Tina responded on how she will consider the feedback for both teachers and leaders in the future.

C. Material Revision Update

Megan Bacigalupi, Chief of Staff, reviewed the Material Revision that was previously presented to the board. She reviewed the possible future pathways for the TK implementation, the planning committee update, and family survey data.

The board asked for an update on spacing for TK at a future board meeting then had no further questions.

D. Strategic Planning Update

Megan Bacigalupi, Chief of Staff, discussed the strategic engagement proposal with Community Schools Learning Exchange and Bellwether, who would support LCPS's strategic planning process. Megan detailed what the engagements will include and how that work will support the upcoming LCAP process in addition to the proposed timelines.

The board had no further questions.

E. Board Nominating Process

Robbie Torney, Chair of the Board, reviewed the board nomination process and commented on members who will be phasing out and previewed the process for creating a nomination group as well as factors that may contribute to successful future board members.

The board asked about the onboarding process for future members and about involving LCPS alumni as future board members.

F. CEO Evaluation Process

Robbie Torney, Chair of the Board, previewed the CEO evaluation process that will occur towards the end of the 2024 school year.

The board had no questions.
