IV. Discussion and Approval Items

A. CEO Update

Rich Harrison, CEO, highlighted updates on academic performance, attendance, suspensions, and chronic absenteeism. Rich then discussed the updates on LCPS' strategic priorities and established baselines for four-year strategic plans.

The board asked a clarifying question about LCPS staff's capacity to deliver on the strategic plan initiatives. Rich responded that the initiatives LCPS has been focusing on seem on target, and initiatives with more room to grow will continue to do so.

The board discussed how staff can monitor progress initiatives and be clearer in terms of objectiveness, and the relationship between actionable instruction and smaller, consistent assessments. Staff gave updates on how staff used interim assessment data in professional development to look at strengths and areas of growth as well as reteaching key areas. Staff also commented on how IABs were chosen to align with curriculum pacing. Staff responded that teachers use PLC time to discuss curriculum-embedded assessments and analyze student work with grade-level partners across the organization.

B. Finance Update

Jill Kwan-Jacobs, Board Member, gave an update on the finance committee and the planning coming in the future that discusses proposal options, and deadlines on interim financials.

Linda Wu, Senior Director of Finance, provided an executive update including enrollment and attendance, cash flow versus bond covenants, and budget and projected revenue.

The board hypothesized scenarios around average daily attendance with staff members and potential outcomes. LCPS staff responded with site action plans that help work towards high daily attendance.

C. Talent & People Update

Anna Martin, Chief Operating Officer, gave a quarter 1 update as aligned to the strategic priorities such as staff retention, staff identification as BIPOC, staff and career pathways, and staff engagement.

The board commented on LCPS' positive leadership BIPOC staff identification percentages as well as staff retention. The board also asked about questions asked in the midyear staff survey and Anna responded with details about sections and when results should be expected for the board.
