IV. Board Retreat

A. LCPS Leadership Team Retreat Recap

Rich Harrison, CEO, gave an overview on how the LCPS Leadership Retreat went, including focus sessions and successes. One of the successes mentioned was community leaders and organizations who came to speak at the retreat.

Oakland Natives Give Back members introduced themselves and their organization, then introduced the overlapping work with Lighthouse Community Public Schools around chronic absenteeism. This work was presented to LCPS leaders at the Leadership Retreat.

The board asked how chronic absenteeism is calculated. ONGB responded with scenarios about how chronic absenteeism may be calculated and the percentages needed to qualify in that criteria. ONGB also gave background on how cultural and mindset shifts can contribute to reducing chronic absenteeism to be welcoming to families and students.

The board asked when the study took place at LCPS on Chronic Absenteeism. Rich Harrison responded the three months midyear in 2025 that the research took place. Aisha Ford, Senior Managing Director of Teaching and Learning, also discussed the next steps discussed at the leadership retreat that site leaders will initiate this year, such as proactive moves before the end of the year.

Kathleen Liljeberg, Director of Assessment and Performance Management, also gave an update on the new data platform EduClimber that will assist with tracking chronic absenteeism and other data points which leaders will engage with over the next school year.

B. Board Retreat: Charter Renewal Survey

Robbie Torney, Chair of the Board, gave instructions and an overview on the requirement of completion of the Charter Renewal Survey related to Lodestar's upcoming Charter Renewal.

No questions from the board.

C. Board Retreat: Annual Training

Megan Bacigalupi, Chief of Staff, gave an overview training of the Brown Act to the Board of Directors. Megan also discussed scenarios and changes from previous years.

No questions from the board.

D. Board & CEO Goals
