IV. Discussion and Approval Items

A.

CEO Goals & Update

Rich Harrison, CEO, gave updates to the board on LHTK-8 charter renewal, the CAO search, assessment completion dates, chronic absenteeism, suspension, professional development of senior leadership, enrollment, and finance.

B. 2025-26 Finance Update

Hung Mai, Senior Director of Finance, updated the Board on financial overviews.

Anna Martin, Chief Operating Officer, reviewed enrollment and recruitment for the 26-26 school year with projected trends such as a low-ball estimate and a high-ball estimate. Anna spoke about the grades that would be most changed in terms of student enrollment, also with context about the closing of a local school that adds to anticipated increases.

Hung continued the update with an overview of budgets versus actuals from July 2025 to February 2026 in terms of revenue and expenses.

The board asked when the fiscal policy would be available for review due to the anticipated construction costs coming from cash-on-hand funds.

Rich Harrison, CEO, responded that LCPS is currently waiting for the legal team to have a draft for the finance committee before the May board meeting, which could then be voted on in June, along with budget approvals.

C. Compensation Approval for Non-teaching staff Compensation Update & COLA Increase for Staff
