II. Capital Plan Discussion & Vote

A. FY25 Capital Plan Discussion

Ted Gildea, Committee Chair, opened the meeting by directing the Committee's attention to the FY25 Capital Plan. Jordan Lopez, Chief Operating Officer, and Diana Landry, Business Manager at Central Source, presented the FY25 Capital Plan, outlining how the surplus funds will be allocated. The surplus will be used for several essential building updates, including repointing the brickwork to maintain the structural integrity of the school buildings and repairing the roof to address current issues and prevent future damage. In addition to these key repairs, the surplus will cover other operational building costs necessary for maintaining and enhancing the overall infrastructure, including window frame repairs. Ted Gildea, Committee Chair, noted the importance of these updates as the City on a Hill Foundation prepares to sell the building, emphasizing that these improvements are crucial to ensure the property is in ready condition for the sale. Lopez then opened the floor for questions, and the Committee had no further questions.
