II. Policy

A. Bullying Intervention and Prevention Plan

Ms. Foley presented the second reading of the bullying and intervention policy including the following highlights and discussion:

- While the policy outlines guidance, the procedures implement the guidance.
- The procedures define the specific timeframe for action of investigation to be completed ten days following the submission of a bullying complaint.
- The policy will be presented to DESE for approval, and the updated procedures will be presented to the Board for informational purposes at the next Board meeting.
- Copies of the investigation are distributed to the building and central office.
- Information is included for parents to appeal the decision to DESE.
- The appeals committee is not involved in any such appeals and is handled at the state level.
- A section speaks to the specific obligations with regard to special ed students, 504, LGBTQ+ and students that identify as non-binary.
