MCAS and Accountability Update 2024

Executive Director Romer reviewed his PowerPoint presentation on the MCAS and Accountability Data update for 2024 including the following highlights:

- Agenda overview.
- MA accountability system designations.
- FRCS overall accountability information.
- Highlights from accountability system and results.
- Key context - shifting enrollment at FRCS over seven years.
- Summary trends of MCAS results.
- Key strategies underway to improve outcomes.
- FRCS science results vs MA.
- FRCS ELA, math and science results by grade span.
- MCAS growth rates over time.
- MCAS comparisons with home districts Gr 3-8.
- Low income/economic disadvantaged subgroup MCAS data.
- EL and former EL students subgroup MCAS data.
- Black African American subgroup MCAS data.
- FRCS chronic absenteeism data (10% or more).
- Key strategies underway to improve outcomes.

Discussion followed including the following highlights:

- The process of getting the lowest performing students up to speed.
 - Interventionists at the elementary level and adjustments to programming and curriculum.
 - High needs student is a term used by DESE for students with a disability who are still learning English language.
 - Multiple causes, including high needs students, pandemic, social/emotional hardships etc. across grade levels have contributed to decreasing scores.
 - Measurement of the "catch-up" growth is important for a student coming into the system who needs to perform not only at a level of like student proficiency but need extra help to meet that mark and making a difference in the student's academic growth.
 - Getting all students in a diverse demographic population to proficiency or advanced is the challenge/goal.
 - Strength of community is defined by passionate commitment of families to the FRCS education.
 - Student support team working in a multi-tiered system addresses a number of individual student problems from a wide range of backgrounds.
 - Collaborative effort among leadership, teachers and Board members is needed to collectively address and measure better outcomes.

- Despite the disappointing and downward trend over the years, there is real opportunity to dedicate full energies to improve the academic life of students and families which have chosen the FRCS community and entrusted the education of their children.

B. Post Graduate Planning - Class of 2024

Bridgette Lemieux, High School Principal, reviewed her PowerPoint presentation on the post graduate planning for the Class of 2024, along with the school counseling team of Adam Goldberg, Keisha Joseph, Sarah DeMello and Saed Mahfoutz. The highlights include the following:
