IV. Board Training

A. Annual Financial Disclosures

Board Member Annual Reporting

Jill went over the details in Policy 2005

State Law requires members of the board to submit a Tier 3 Financial Disclosure by May 15th

Information shared will include employment information, income information, gaming interest, political subdivision and spouse information.

Jill will send a copy of the disclosure to board members in the next few weeks.

V. Committee Reports

A. Finance Committee

No Report

B. Governance Committee

Jill presented the policies that were discussed in the Governance Committee meeting.

The public access to board meeting policy will be presented to the board next month.

The background check policy was separated into three separate categories:

Board Member

Employees and Contracted Employees

Volunteer Background Checks

C. Strategic Planning Ad Hoc Committee

VI. Discussion Items

A. Bonding Update

John Pham advised that the bonding offer is valid until May 2022.

Mr. Pham presented an annual fixed rate at 5.5% for 35 years which would be $1.93 million annually. After the 35 years, the board would own the building.

The lease to own developer normally assumes higher risk when building a school and the appraisal price is higher.

The current building leasing cost for 2022-2023 totals $2 million at an interest rate of 2 1/2%
