V. President's Report

A. Collective Bargaining

President Lapidus discussed the MSCA Collective Bargaining Agreement. He explained the bargaining process and the fact that the Office of Employment Relations reviewed and rejected the agreement submitted as it exceeded the 2% specified by the Governor's Office. He emphasized that faculty are being paid, but not receiving the 2% increase. He reported that once negotiations are finalized, all raises would be retroactive. The president discussed a recent bargaining meeting that A. Krishnamurthy attended as well. He thought they had a productive conversation. He agrees that the current environment is not what we want on campus. He stated that the administration greatly values the faculty and the many contributions they make at the institution. He is hopeful that all both parties will come to a resolution at some point soon. He concluded by stating that the APA and AFSCME union contracts have been completed. There was a discussion.

B.

Winter Commencement

The president informed the board that the Winter Commencement was well attended by graduates and faculty. He thanked the board members that participated. He reported that a good number of fully online students, who had not previously been on campus travelled to meet faculty in person and attend graduation.

C. Opening of the Spring Semester

The move in for the start of the semester went smoothly despite a winter storm during that time. The president expressed his concern with decline in student enrollment and indicated that it is consistent with what is being experienced on sister campuses. The university is down approximately 212 students from where it was in the fall. He indicated that a tightening of the budget was underway. The administration is also working more closely with Admissions to maximize the yields. He indicated that as enrollment declines, our residence hall occupancy has also declined. The university is looking at various strategies to increase the occupancy in the residence halls for fall. There was a discussion related to enrollment.

D. Financial Audit Restate

The president informed the board that when the Financial Audit was submitted, there was an error at the state level. The university will need to resubmit the audit however, there are no substantive changes.

E. ADA Audit Update

The president informed the board that State Auditors are on campus reviewing ADA compliance. They continue to work on this and it is a new process for them. He anticipates the findings will show that the campus is doing a good job, but there could be some recommendations for improvement.

F. Urban Agenda Grant

The university hosted the Urban Agenda Grant event at the ideaLab. Lt. Governor Karyn Polito recognized the recipients. Fitchburg State received a $60,000 grant in support of the ideaLab.

G. NECHE Approval of AUI International School

The AUI program was approved by NECHE. Fitchburg State faculty will now have the opportunity to teach classes in China to students from other institutions all over the world. He explained the program and its many associated benefits.

H. Beginning of Strategic Plan Process

The president explained the strategic process. Every five years the university must develop a new strategic plan. There is a new process mandated by the Department of Higher Education. There are no formal dates to complete the exercise, but there are touch points that guide the overall process.

The university will be celebrating its 125 Anniversary this coming academic year. There will be a committee structure that guides the planning process. He welcomed members of the Board of Trustees, Foundation Board and Alumni Board to participate. There was a discussion.
