F. Directors Report

Student Achievement

Grade level teams continue to review intervention plans and student progress. Students can not be referred to special education until two 6-8 week intervention cycles are completed. Instructional Assistant schedules are adjusted frequently to support students with the greatest need. TAG screeners were completed for grades 3-5th. Middle School Leadership program starting. Progress reports going out week of Nov. 29th.

Climate and Culture

School hired interpreters for conference support. Admin working to find solutions to behavior issues in the middle school program. A letter recently went out to families about these concerns.

Professional Development

The next professional development day is Nov. 29. Focus is on conflict resolution, equity and inclusion and student interventions (academic and behavioral).

The school leadership team and the parent Equity Advisory Council have recommended that we focus on equity issues related to invisible differences including queerness and medical conditions. Groups are working to help develop agendas for staff training days and for our monthly Familias Unidas meetings.

Hot Topics

-Staffing continues to be a challenge. School is working to hire 3 instructional assistants and 1-2 homeroom teachers. There are no viable candidates at this time.

-Charter renewal update: We have most of the documents collected and we are working on scheduling a visitation with the person who is doing our renewal report. We have to submit the request for renewal to BSD by the end of December, but we do not have to turn in the full report until Jan. 10.

-Middle school blended classes- board discussed pros, cons and additional considerations for this type of class configuration in middle school.

Seeking Input

Michelle asked for ideas on next Gap Funding reminder to families. Also discussed needs for finishing Charter Renewal process.

S. Stevens made a motion to Approve request from family to hold their spot at Arco Iris due to extenuating circumstance.

C. Staudenraus seconded the motion.

-Student will be absent beyond the 10 day drop period. Should return by day 12.

Absence due to family emergency.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
