G. General Public Comment

No public comment

IV. Executive Director

A. Directors Report

Student Achievement

- Ralph working to create TAG service plans.
- Winter Easy CBM testing completed, and used to inform report cards.

Climate and Culture

- We are now allowing parent volunteers back into the building! BSD recently approved this change.
- Interviews have started with J-1 candidates for next year.
- Sub shortages continue to be a challenge and impact staff morale. Admin providing additional planning time for teachers on the already scheduled professional development days.
- Admin provided update on the recent vandalism in the bathroom, and steps taken to repair our school climate.

Professional Development

- Focus for remainder of the year on effective student intervention, data collect, and equity/inclusion
- Michelle working to increase the PD budget for next year, back to pre-pandemic levels

Hot Topics

- Facility improvements are wrapping up today! Thanks to Chris for spearheading this.
- 6th grade voted to create an inside mural as their project with the upcoming artist in residence.

Decisions Needed

- Teacher retention concerns. Other Charter schools are offering bonuses to staff to help with this. Michelle proposed a spring break bonus for all staff, and then a re-signing bonus for licensed staff that return next school year. Board voted to allow the Finance Committee to make a decision on this based on current budget numbers.
- Michelle presented COLA increase suggestions for next year (5% minimum up to 8% depending on increase from BSD or State School Fund). Finance committee to consider this when making budget for next year. Next year's budget needs to be finalized by April 15th.
- Dress code challenges with outer wear, especially in Middle School. Michelle and Chris to roll out plan to revisit enforcement of dress code. Board members suggested focusing energy on students who are following the rules. Admin to report back at next meeting. Board not ready to revisit dress code policy at this time.
- Discussed major calendar dates for 2022-2023.
- Updates for Mask Mandate decision needed starting on March 31st.

- Our PACE attorney says we will not have protection from liability if we end the mask mandate.
- As of now, if we lift the mask mandate, it will likely mean more students and staff will be required to quarantine if there is a positive case. It may mean moving to online school if we can't find coverage for increased staff absences.
- Michelle shared info from staff survey.
- Board will make final decision at March 17th meeting.

E. Hatch made a motion to allow the finance committee to decide on possible bonus for up to $500 per staff member for current year, and licensed resigning bonus up to $1500 per person for the start of the 22-23 school year.

C. Staudenraus seconded the motion.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
