II. Executive Director

A. Organizational Dashboard

W. Gardner shared the updated Organizational Dashboard with the Board and stated that with input from the Board we can also make adjustments to add additional information.

B. Cunningham asked about the progress of scholars who are still in need of chromebooks. Alma is working diligently with all families to ensure that they have connectivity and can access their remote learning.

B. Update on the launch of Stage 1 of Reopening

W. Gardner reports that the small number of scholars currently participating in in-person learning are doing very well! Scholars are joyful and are learning. Additional health and safety measures are in place.

W. Gardner reported that today is the first quiz day for all remote scholars.

W. Gardner reported that we have had strong attendance so far with an average of 93%.

C. Current Considerations Regarding Stage II of Reopening

W. Gardner reviewed Alma's current planning to bring back our next group of scholars if it is safe and feasible.

W. Gardner reviewed the data that Alma is looking at to make the determination that it would be safe, as well as key indicators of feasibility such as adequate building ventilation and space.

Alma is hoping to bring back all kindergarten and first grade scholars who opt into in-person learning at the end of October if it is safe and feasible.

W. Gardner reviewed the recent family needs survey and discussed the way that Alma is taking that input into consideration in planning to bring additional scholars back in person.

D. Update on Racial Equity Team

W. Gardner updated the Board that Alma has partnered with an outside consultant who is beginning work with Alma and the Racial Equity Team now. She is beginning with a staff survey in the coming week.

E. Charter Renewal Timeline

E. Darrow provided the Board with a general timeline of the Charter Renewal process, including a virtual site visit in October and final word on our renewal expected in January 2021.

F. Organizational Chart for 2020-21

The Board reviewed the organizational chart.

III. Academic Excellence
