IV. Governance

A. Board Complaint Policy review

J. Baptist shared that the Board has been approached by families this year with concerns. She asked that the board review and reflect on the policy from Alma's bylaws.

G. Fortes asked that the process be clear in Alma staff following up with trustees who receive complaints and then forward those to school staff.

Trustee receives communication, then forwards that message to Board Chair, who then shares it with the Executive Director to resolve. The Executive Director then reports back to the Board Chair, who then reports back to the trustee.

B. Board REDI Update and Committee Launch

G. Fortes thanked trustees for participating in the REDI workshop with Chante Chambers, our DEI consultant, earlier this month. She shared that she would like to create a committee to ensure this work continues and remains a priority of the board.

V. E.D. Selection Committee

A. E.D. Selection Committee Recommendation and Vote

J. Baptist thanked everyone for their participation in the Executive Director Selection Committee process. She also thanked W. Gardner for his contributions and dedication to Alma.

The search committee is ready to make a recommendation for the successor, and have identified Taylor DeLoach.

C. Arnold made a motion to approve Taylor DeLoach as the next Executive Director of Alma del Mar Charter Schools.
