II. Executive Director Report

A. Dashboard

There were no questions from the board on the February 2024 Dashboard.

B. Executive Director Report

T. DeLoach highlighted the staff survey data from earlier this winter as well as early staff retention figures as managers begin to have conversations with their directs regarding their plans for next year.

J. Korn asked what fraction of staff will ultimately return to work at Alma next school year; T. DeLoach estimated 85% of staff will return.

J. Korn pointed to current concerns of midyear staff departures and reiterated the importance of consistent, long term staffing at our schools for scholar experience and success.

D. Prentiss congratulated T. DeLoach and the team on strong staff survey results. He then asked what priorities and what work remains to be done to continue to improve staff experience at Alma.

III. Academic Excellence

A. Q2 Academic Update

T. DeLoach presented on the Q2 academic data based on interim results and STEP reading assessments. A few highlights:

- There was a significant increase in average reading growth for K-3 scholars (this quarter had the highest average growth since we've been using this tool, originally adopted in January 2021).
- Ottiwell 5th-8th grade ELA data is very strong, with 65% of scholars passing their exams. This bodes well for MCAS performance in those classrooms.
- Early elementary math data also remains very strong, with 70% of K-3 scholars passing their math exams.
- It continues to be true that teachers who stay at Alma the longest produce the best results, so our key strategy around talent remains the correct priority.

Areas for Improvement

- Middle School math data across the network continues to be our area of most significant concern. While our new curriculum adoption has helped stabilize instruction on grade level content, we need to continue finding more effective and strategic ways to supplement for foundational skills remediation.
- Broadly, Douglass MS scholars perform lower than Ottiwell MS scholars across the board. This is likely due to several factors, including the different make-up of the student bodies (i.e. half of the Douglass MS scholars each year enter in 6th grade), the more novice teachers and leaders at that campus, and the more demanding schedule. We are continually considering programmatic shifts and supports to differentiate for this context.
- 3rd and 4th graders across the network are the scholars who experienced Kindergarten and 1st grade remotely. They continue to demonstrate significant gaps in reading and writing, which shows up in both their STEP and ELA interim data.

Y. Dennis arrived at 9:35 AM.

J. Korn asked about the Public Speaking Competition that was held in honor of Frederick Douglass on February 16th. B. Kurie shared that three of four finalists wrote their own speeches, and the winning scholar speaker shared her personal narrative as a young person with a visible disability.

C. Holley added that he had a challenging, but enjoyable experience as a guest judge for the event. He was impressed by the speakers and their speeches.

A. Cortez shared that her group is offering tutoring young people with a focus on volunteers who are able to tutor and model reading with clear and correct pronunciation to ensure they are able to pronounce words correctly in school and everyday life. This effort was in response to children voicing concerns and, sometimes, a 504 plan being put in place incorrectly due to mispronunciation.

IV. Development

A. Fundraising Updates

B. Kurie announced that this year's fundraising is on track with the goal being $300,000. To date the school has received $255,000. The Board was asked to complete the thank you notes for donors who contributed over the annual appeal season. Ms. Kurie will follow up with the Board electronically in case there are questions or suggestions needed regarding wording for the thank you notes.

B. Board Development Plan for 2023-24

D. Prentiss shared that he has reached out to the Advisory Council to engage them and determine what involvement or contribution they may be interested in.

There is a need for a Development Committee Chair. D. Prentiss asked Board members to submit suggestions at their convenience. Mr. Prentiss also thanked Ms. Kurie for her dedication. No votes were taken.

V. Finance

A. 5 Year Projections

C. Holley provided the Board with the 5 year projections document. The Finance Committee wants to be proactive when addressing concerns such as teacher retention. It is projected that there will be an increase of 6% in tuition for 2025 and a conservative projected increase of 3.5% in 2026.

The expense (personnel) cost was kept to a 3% increase which demonstrates we have strong financial projections through 2028 with a consistent net income of over $1 million. The projections document will be updated as new information becomes available. The Board had not follow up questions.

B. FY24 Surplus Spending Proposal

C. Holley provided the Board with a summary of three identified buckets of surplus spending for 2024. He explained that there was a surplus due to tuition rates, it is projected that there will be a $450,000 surplus and the Finance Committee would like to increase the base salary of existing staff and also add two full time senior leadership positions with these funds. T. DeLoach explained that one of these positions was Director of Human Resources. The other role is Chief Academic Officer (CAO). Ms. DeLoach informed the Board that it can be difficult to find a well qualified CAO who is familiar with charter schools. If the school cannot find an appropriate candidate they may search for a Director of Culture instead.

The second bucket consideration is a release of contingency line item funds which results in a $500,000 surplus. The Finance Committee would like to use it for staff bonuses. More information on how they will be structured will be forthcoming. T. DeLoach informed the Board that this is a line item that becomes available every year. Historically it has been used for thank you bonuses and recommitment bonuses.

The third bucket consideration is a surplus that is projected due to ESSER funding which totals about $1 million. If these funds are not used they have to be returned to the state. The Finance Committee would like to move these funds to a capital replacement account which will allow us to use them in the future. T. DeLoach explained that we want to use the money for professional development, teacher certification (MTEL) , technology upgrades, etc.

Yolanda Dennis rejoined the meeting. There were no follow up questions from the Board.

J. Korn made a motion to accept the surplus spending report as presented.

C. Holley seconded the motion.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

An update is anticipated for the April board meeting.
