A. Flexibility

After some brief comments regarding the current tensions and protests regarding social justice, Pamela Ziss went through an exercise on resilience. Don't make decisions when you're Hungry, Angry, Lonely or Tired (HALT). While we all crave certainty, we should attempt to stay in the "green zone" of positivity during these challenging times. Group performed some mind mapping exercises and considered what emotions they wanted to spread. "Moving forward, you can count on me for _____".

VI. Lunch

A. Lunch Break

VII. The Future

A. Philanthropy

Lisa Sierk reviewed a presentation on philanthropy and organizational culture. During these times, giving is surprisingly high. Work with the community on engaging with them, which will result in their giving their time, talent and treasure. Consider where we can get creative. The key is collaboration. Culture is about attitude, understanding and behavior.
