- Ice breaker game
- Innovation to be the focus as has been in the past and to continue
- Make a clear distinction between Board role vs. Role of CSO

IV. CEO Update

A. CEO Update

Innovations this year:

- District C program: Students work as a Research team with a company; working on actual products; course designed accordingly; Freshman starting on this right through their senior level; team based sponsored project
- Internships with new companies (CISCO, Ubisoft)
- Advanced research(reading papers, communicating about their work, placing them in industrial sector) and physics course
- Building science beyond core requirements
- Develop quality of tools to assess PL
- Revaluating management work done in the past; thinking more strategically
- Creating responsible use of technology for critical thinking - more so in 9th Grade than 12th Grade; Students have knowledge about excel worksheets and comfortable working in it
- Have an effective college preparatory model

Challenges

- Physical Plant
- Adapting to change in administrative capacity
- Mission Compliance

- Evolution of Educational Program (adapt Summit program for RTHS's innovation mission; use PLP but adapt it to define RTHS's uniqueness; a process to change the platform after discussion with staff; need to know if it is worth it; maybe a 2-yr process)
- Faculty Working Conditions
- Faculty hiring

Strategic Initiatives

- Partnering with Kestrel Heights?
- Working on changing daily schedules (some constraints everyday)
- Backfilling 11th and 12th grade?
- Measures of achievement not so high or as much as it should be
- Diversity initiative for hiring faculty?
