II. Public Comment

A. School Boards Public Comment

Dick Pace addressed the Board stating that Bridget Moreno and he were very concerned regarding the course materials/video being used to teach Breakthrough scholars on the topic "How to be an Anti-Racist" and the inappropriateness of the materials being used. Dick stated he believes our goal should be developing our scholars to be lifelong-learners and not teaching them to be victims of a structurally racist country. Dick then discussed and distributed copies of his concerns to the Board. A. Kopit acknowledged the concerns of D. Pace and B. Moreno, stating that a response from the School Boards would be forthcoming.

III. CEO Update

A. CEO Updates

R. Johnson provided the update supplemented with a Power Point presentation highlighting the following:

- In the process of merging two of our schools – Citizens Academy and Citizens Academy East into one campus starting next year into CAE; this move is very grounded in ensuring and improving the academic performance of our scholars
- A review of last year's iReady winter results with percentages for grade levels (Reading and Math scores) – the current reality of our performance and the need to change this picture
- Review of the performance metrics in place to help address performance and keeping track monthly/annually
- Budget Process – Our academic infrastructure will be the priority in the FY23 Budget;
- Enrollment – We will be conservative for the coming year around our financial approach; the enrollment budget target for the coming year will be 3200 students and Doug will share more in his Finance report; Ralph also provided a snapshot on where we are currently with re-enrollment; retention/articulation; and marketing efforts
- Ralph concluded by stating there are three important words for Breakthrough for the next three years: we will have to “shrink,” “stabilize,” and “scale” in order to stabilize our network processes.

IV. Family Partnership, Enrollment, and Marketing

A. Enrollment Update - SY22 Enrollment, SY23 Re-Enrollment, SY23 Early Enrollment

Enrollment – A. Prass provided the update highlighting the following:

- Two reports provided in the Board materials – January 2022 Enrollment/Student Population and the February Enrollment reports
- Review of student population from January – February; January reflects 3420; February 3376
- The work of the enrollment team is not to backfill but to support our new kids
- Continue to work on strategies to keep families before they unenrolled and keep them engaged throughout the school year

V. Talent

A. Total Rewards Update

1. J. Younker provided the updates supplemented with a PowerPoint Presentation highlighting the following:

- Worked closely with the Finance Committee and NLT to bring forth the material in the Board packet for review – the proposal for our new Teacher Salary schedule
- Held discussions with teachers, principals and research from other Districts to develop our compensation philosophy
- The proposal provides predictability; transparency; and straightforward
- Andrew Lee stated the Finance Committees have reviewed and are comfortable with the proposal presented and is factored into the longer-term plan with Doug

VII. Academic Excellence

A. Academic Department and Academic Excellence Committee Updates

Academic Department and Academic Excellence Committee Updates – Danielle Eisenberg and Andrew McRae

D. Eisenberg provided the update highlighting the following:

- Andrew and team really did an innovating and good job putting together the clarity, purpose and focus pre-read materials provided in the board packet that Andrew will talk about in his update
- Will be asking for approval of the SY21-22 Retention Guidelines provided in the materials for this year only and approval of the School calendar

A. McRae provided the Academic update supplemented with a PowerPoint presentation highlighting the following:

- Schools are unstable and there are ongoing and fundamental challenges we have to address; but kids still have to learn
- A review of the Iron Laws (provided in board packet):

1. Have to do the things that matter the most
 2. Everyone can learn the mechanics of reading
 3. Under developed literacy skills are wreaking havoc on our kids, on their lives, our network in the short/long term
- Approach will be simplicity and diligence applied with a fierce determination
 - Priorities will be – define what we teach; how we teach; authentic literacy (analytical reading, writing, and speaking)
 - Review of three core challenges to move schools forward
 - Two things that are true for our kids: 1) key input is addressing foundation literacy for grades K-3; 2) key output is continuously see our kids learn and grow until 8th grade
